✓ 2. [] LIAISON Received a call from Michael Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, House International Relations Subcommittee on International Organizations. Hershman said that Minority Subcommittee staff member Larry Sulc has asked to accompany Hershman to the interview scheduled for this afternoon with former Agency official [] Hershman asked whether we could approve Sulc's attendance. I called Hershman's attention to the Addendum to the Memorandum of Understanding between the DCI and the Subcommittee signed by Admiral Turner and Subcommittee Chairman Donald M. Fraser (D., Minn.) on 16 March 1978. I pointed out to Hershman that the Addendum called for access by two designated Subcommittee staff members only, and that he and Beverley Lumpkin, of the Subcommittee staff, had already been designated. I told Hershman that paragraph three of the Addendum permitted the sharing of notes derived from interviews with other Subcommittee staffers upon approval by the Office of Legislative Counsel, but that the Addendum contained no provision for attendance by additional Subcommittee staffers at interviews with present or former CIA employees. Hershman said that he understood and that he would handle the Sulc matter.

✓ 3. [] LIAISON Took a call from Larry Sulc, Minority Staff member, House International Relations Subcommittee on International Organizations. Sulc said that he had been told by Deputy Subcommittee Staff Director Michael Hershman that his (Sulc's) application to take part in the interview of [] had been turned down by the Agency. Sulc wanted to know if this was correct. I reviewed with Sulc the history of the stand down and its lifting, including the execution of the Addendum to the Memorandum of Understanding between the DCI and the Subcommittee on 16 March. I explained that the Addendum did not allow for additional Subcommittee personnel beyond those designated by the Subcommittee Chairman to participate in interviews that would cover "new" material. Sulc appeared to grasp the fact that Hershman and Beverley Lumpkin, of the Subcommittee staff, were the designees. It was apparent that Sulc had not been aware of the Addendum. I told Sulc that while the Addendum provided for DCI agreement to the designees, their choice clearly rested with the Subcommittee Chairman.
